

GORDIE HOWE INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE PUBLIC INFORMATION MEETINGS

THE PROJECT

The Windsor-Detroit Bridge Authority (WDBA) is moving forward with the delivery of the Gordie Howe International Bridge project, including the new bridge over the Detroit River, the Canadian and U.S. Ports of Entry and the interchange to Interstate-75. Construction and operations of the bridge will ensure economic growth and investment in both Canada and the United States.

INVOLVING THE PUBLIC

You are invited to attend a Public Information Meeting on Tuesday, November 17, 2015, in Windsor, Ontario and Wednesday, November 18, 2015, in Detroit, Michigan to learn more about the project, including how the procurement process to identify the private sector partner works and an overall project update.
