Good afternoon,

Here are a few things we wanted you to know about:

Beaming With Pride

In honour of Engineering Month in Canada, here is a new video that celebrates the workers behind the Gordie Howe International Bridge project. From office workers to local unions, we appreciate their dedication and expertise as we build this multi-generational project. They are leaving their mark on this legacy project and the beams that are manufactured for the bridge deck by CanAm in Quebec. Watch and see how they are being installed on the main span over the Detroit River as part of the masterful engineering for the longest cable-stayed bridge in North America.

MULTI-USE PATH – SHARE YOUR THOUGHTS

Walking or riding a bike across the border will be a reality once the Gordie Howe International Bridge opens. Windsor-Detroit Bridge Authority and the Trans-Canada Trail recently announced that the bridge will become the first international bridge border crossing within the 28,000 km trail network. The dedicated multi-use path will offer a safe, toll-free way to move between Windsor and Detroit, connecting the Great Lakes Waterfront Trail in Windsor, to the Iron Belle Trail and the Great Lakes Way in Detroit.

To support the multi-use path's operation, the project team seeks feedback from future users through an online survey, focus groups and public meetings. Information gathered will help develop policies relating to hours of operation, public safety, and the overall user experience.

Gordie Howe International Bridge Multi-use Path

The Gordie Howe International Bridge project includes a dedicated multi-use path that will accommodate pedestrians and cyclists across the Windsor-Detroit border once complete. The multi-use path will be toll-free and includes one lane that will accommodate two-way pedestrian and cyclist traffic.

Share Your Input

The project team is seeking public input on the future operation of the multi-use path. Feedback gathered through the online survey will be used to help inform the development of policies and will consider operational items related to access, public safety and user experience. The survey closes on April 5, 2024.
